EARN YOUR MPH AT UC DAVIS

Numerous ailments, from obesity and cardiovascular disease to cancer and smoking related illnesses, can be addressed through a public health approach. At UC Davis we train public health professionals in the tools used to prevent and control disease, and to improve the health of populations worldwide. The 56-unit program can be completed in 10-12 months. Most students graduate after completing summer session, three academic quarters, and a summer practicum placement. Our MPH Program is fully accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health.

WHY UC DAVIS?

- Complete the program in 10-12 months
- Top ranked faculty in Public Health & related disciplines
- Strong collaborative links with the California Department of Public Health, local health departments & other public health agencies
- Rural location, yet close to urban centers and state & local health departments
- Practical approach in preparing students for careers in public health

IS THE MPH AT UC DAVIS RIGHT FOR YOU?

Attend the Information Night to meet our Program Director & Chair, Dr. Diana Cassady to learn more about the program and its admission requirements.
