

CALIFORNIA POSTBACCALAUREATE CONSORTIUM

The California Postbaccalaureate Consortium is a partnership of pre-medical postbaccalaureate programs: UC Davis, UC Irvine, UC Los Angeles, UC San Francisco, Charles Drew University Schools of Medicine and Huwighurruk (Tribal Health) - Cal Poly Humboldt.

COMPREHENSIVE SUPPORT

Our postbacc programs are year-long pre-medical academic enhancers that include MCAT prep and support, built-in mentorship opportunities, and medical school application guidance.

OPEN TO DACA, UNDOCUMENTED & AB540

California residents who have faced educational or economic disadvantages, are interested in serving medically underserved communities in California, and meet GPA and coursework requirements are welcome to apply.

APPLICATION IS FREE

Our application opens in December. There is no fee to apply, and candidates may apply to more than one program simultaneously. Please visit our website for program-specific admission requirements.

OUR MISSION

The consortium's mission is to increase the number of physicians who practice in physician-shortage areas in California by assisting capable and dedicated students from educational and economically disadvantaged backgrounds gain admission to medical school.
