

Post-Baccalaureate Pathway for Enrolled Tribal Members

The Post-Baccalaureate Pathway for Enrolled Tribal Members is designed to help learners thrive in their journey through medicine. The free 10-month program provides a holistic, culturally specific framework and foundation for the successful recruitment, training, retention, and graduation from medical school.

September–June WSU Spokane campus

The Post-Baccalaureate Pathway for Enrolled Tribal Members will be held at the Elson S. Floyd College of Medicine in Spokane, Washington. The pathway program runs from September–June. WSU College of Medicine selects up to 4 scholars annually who are enrolled members of federally recognized Tribes and meet the admissions requirements.

Focus

- Foundations of Biomedical Sciences
- Indigenous health & wellness
- Cultural engagement and community building
- Population health and epidemiology
- Academic skills & wellness
- Clinical observation
- Research experience
- Kaplan MCAT Prep course

Eligibility Requirements

- Bachelor's degree earned from an accredited US or Canadian institution.
- Overall undergraduate GPA of 2.6 or higher. WSU College of Medicine then uses three different pairings of required MCAT scores to meet the condition of acceptance. These can be found under Academic Requirements.
  - If the MCAT score combined with the undergraduate overall GPA does not currently meet one of the three combination thresholds outlined on our website, the current highest composite MCAT score must be no more than 7 points below the needed percentile rank to meet the GPA/MCAT combination threshold.
- Prior unsuccessful application to medical school is also preferred; however, we will consider those who have not yet applied to medical school.
- Plan to apply to medical school for Entering Year of 2026 (by October 15, 2025).
- Enrolled membership or descendency in a federally recognized Tribe.
- Residency:
  - Meet ties to Washington or have Washington residency. Descriptions of this can be found on the admissions page under "Requirements to Receive a Secondary Application." Those who need to establish residency in WA can do so by living in Spokane, WA during the duration of the pathway.

Benefits

- Cost to attend: FREE
- A monthly stipend to help offset living expenses ($1,195)
- Access and exposure to medical school faculty, leadership, and students
- Coursework and exposure to facilities to become better prepared for entry into the WSU College of Medicine
- Conditional acceptance to the WSU College of Medicine—dependent on successful completion of the Pathway
