

FIND YOUR PLACE AT CDPH

2026 Spring Internship Applications Open Now

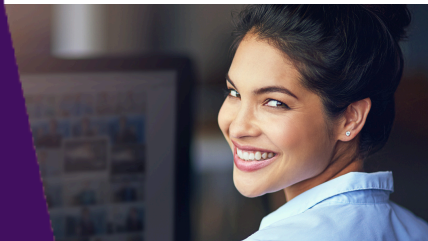

2026 Spring Cohort: February 3 to May 15

How do you want to make difference?

Internship positions are available in a wide range of California Department of Public Health (CDPH) program areas.

- Health Education & Promotion
- Community Outreach
- Health Equity
- Data Research & Analysis
- Data Science & Programming
- IT Services and Support
- Lab Services (Richmond only)
- Program & Event Support
- Policy & Legislation
- Communications & Graphics
- Emergency Response
- Epidemiology

Scan to attend the September 30 Virtual Info Session

Cohort Details

- Remote, hybrid, and onsite internships available.
- Interns are paid an hourly wage starting at $18/hour and work between 18 and 29 hours per week.
- Mentorship, professional development and networking opportunities.
- Virtual info session, Tuesday, September 30, 2025, 10:30 a.m.

Eligibility

- Priority given to college seniors and juniors, masters candidates, and transferring junior college students.
- Open to DACA and international students.
- Interns must reside in California throughout the cohort and be enrolled in an affiliated college or university.

SCAN TO APPLY

Application Deadline
October 7, 2025

Find out more about CDPH internships and how to apply on our web page.

