Aspiring Physicians Program (APP)

Come and learn about our
Aspiring Physicians Program
(APP) at SFSU, Fresno State,
& UC Merced!

2026 Summer Program Overview

The Latinx Center of Excellence APP is a pre-medical program that supports and prepares students who are medically, economically, or educationally disadvantaged at San Francisco and Fresno State Universities, and UC Merced who wish to pursue a career in medicine.

Our intensive five-week summer program includes a $2,500 stipend, mentorship, and a variety of workshops. Students will gain exposure to:

- Preparation for Medical School Application
- Introductory MCAT preparation
- Health policy & research-based fact sheets
- Overview of the AMCAS (medical school application)
- Guest speakers, medical school panelists & much more!
