

APPLICATIONS OPEN: NOV 1 - JAN 31

PUBLIC HEALTH
SCHOLARS
TRAINING PROGRAM

The UCLA Public Health Scholars Training Program is an intensive 8-week summer program for undergraduate students and recent graduates to explore the field of public health

Summer Program: June - August

Why Apply

- ✓ Gain public health knowledge
- ✓ Develop your professional skills
- ✓ Participate in an LA-based internship
- ✓ Collaborate on a research poster
- ✓ Build your public health community
- ✓ Stipend, housing and meal plan provided

How to Apply

- Scan this QR code to visit our website
- Applications open Nov 1 - Jan 31
- No GPA requirement

Eligibility Criteria*

Education - must meet ONE

- Undergrad entering year 3 or above
- Transfer or community college graduate
- Recent Graduate who has not been accepted to a graduate program

**additional criteria outlined on website*

Additional - must meet ALL

1. U.S. Citizen, National or Resident (DACA eligible)
2. Authorized to work in the U.S.
3. Attend U.S. or U.S. territory institution

