

Interdisciplinary Computational Graduate Education Application

Due: November 7, 2016 at 12:00pm

Contact Information

Full Name

Graduate Group

E-Mail Address

Application Questions

1. Thinking of seminars you have attended this fall, what talk did you enjoy most and why? What did you learn from this seminar? Did the seminar suggest any interesting research projects you might want to further investigate?

2. fron	Why are you interested in participating in the ICGE program? What do you hope to learn n it?
3. and	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?
	One of the program's primary goals is the retention of members of underrepresented groups first generation graduate students. How will you contribute to this goal?