

Postdoctoral Recruitment Initiative at the School of Medicine

Stanford PRISM

Stanford PRISM is an opportunity for late-stage graduate students from diverse backgrounds to explore postdoctoral training at Stanford School of Medicine.

Benefits:

- Expense-paid trip to Stanford
- Discuss shared research interests with faculty
- Meet current Stanford postdocs
- Get the inside scoop on postdoctoral training
- Explore campus and the Bay Area

When: March 23-25, 2017

Who Should Apply:

Graduate students who:

- expect to complete their PhD in 2017
- are U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents
- wish to continue their training as postdoctoral scholars

We welcome applications from all interested students and especially encourage individuals from groups underrepresented in the biosciences to apply. These groups include, but are not limited to: African Americans, Latinos, Native Americans, Pacific Islanders, and those with disabilities or from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Apply Now:

Deadline is January 21
