

PERSPECTIVES ON CREATIVITY

2021-22 LECTURE SERIES

TIME: 6:30PM-8:00PM

LOCATION: MERCED COUNTY LIBRARY

2100 O St. | Merced, CA

SCHEDULE

- Oct. 13 Dr. Arnold Kim, Professor of Applied Math
"Math is Supposed to be Beautiful"
- Oct. 27 Dr. Gilberto Lopez, Assistant Professor of Public Health, Arizona State University
"Combating Vaccine Misinformation through Art"
- Nov. 10 Dr. Kim McMillon
"Inclusivity and the Black Arts Movement"
- Feb. 9 Dr. Chris Amemiya, Professor of Developmental Biology
"Music to Creativity in Biological Thought"
- Mar. 9 Dr. Tea Lempiala, Assistant Professor of Management of Innovation, Sustainability, and Technology
"Empowering Creativity and Innovation in Work Organizations"
- April 13 Dr. Yiran Xu, Assistant Professor of Writing Studies
"Internet Censorship and Language Creativity"
- May 4 Dr. David Torres-Rouff, Associate Professor of History (with Madalyn Lara)
"Emerging from the Rubble: Creatively Remembering Merced's 'Lost' Chinatown"

Goals of the Lecture Series

- Generate greater community awareness of the research and accomplishments of UC Merced faculty
- Introduce the Merced community to the Department of Global Arts, Media, and Writing Studies
- Provide an opportunity for the community to learn about the scope of activities in our program and about the university more generally

CONTACT:

Jayson Beaster Jones, Ph.D.

Professor of Music

EMAIL: jbeaster-jones@ucmerced.edu

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
MERCED